FORMER COUNTY OFFICIAL

HARRY G. WEHLER, EX-REGISTER AND RECORDER DIES.

Made a Name for Himself for Faithfulness to Friends and Thoroughness of His Work.

Harry G. Wehler, ex-Register and Recorder of Adams county, died on Tuesday at his home in New Oxford, after an extended illness, in which he was threatened with loss of sight, aged 60 years. He was a native of this county, a son of the late Levi Wehler of New Oxford. He was a man of the highest character and gifted with the ability of doing things. Whatever he undertook his friends knew would be accomplished, for he would devote every energy to the doing of the undertaken work. His friendship was highly prized by the man who had it, for he could always be depended upon. He started out in life as a miller and successfully mastered that trade and business, managing mills on the big Conewago. Always an ardent and devoted Democrat and one believing sincerely in the rule of the people his party represented he gave himself to all kinds of party work, and his ability soon won recognition in his nomination and election as Register and Recorder in 1890. He lived in Gettysburg the three years of his term, making many friends here as a neighbor and man. Returning to New Oxford he devoted himself to several lines of work and became the book-keeper in the Farmers and Merchants Bank and held the position for eleven years, resigning two years ago on account of his ill health. He was an elder in St. Paul's Reformed church of New Oxford for 12 years and was a member of the Hebron Lodge F. & A. M. of New Oxford. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Emma Weaver Wehler, and the following brothers and sisters: Samuel Wehler of Hanover; J. Milton Wehler of New Oxford; Jacob Wehler of East Berlin; Randolph Wehler of Westminster; Rev. Dr. Charles Wehler of Hood College, Frederick; Mrs. Emma Dubs of Hanover, and Mrs. S. J. Wolf of New Oxford. The funeral will be on Saturday at 1 P. M. with services by Rev. J. W. Keener and interment in the New Oxford Cemetery.

Alexander Harner, well-known citizen of Germany township, Adams county, died last Friday at the family residence, near Littlestown, aged 87 years, two months and two days. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Pius and Harvey Harner, of Littlestown, and Abia Harner of near Littlestown, and three daughters, Annie, Lillie and Elsie Harner, all at home. Funeral was on Monday, services by Rev. I. M. Lau and burial made in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown.

One brother, William McConley, of Lancaster, and two sisters, Mrs. Tobias Laughman, of McSherrystown, and Mrs. Jacob Breighner, of Paradise, also survive.

She is survived by three sisters: Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Henry Raffensberger, of Hampton, and Miss Alice Mummert, of San Diego, California, also three step-children, Mrs. H. G. Baugher and W. C. Weaner, of Aspers, R. D., and Charles C. Weaner, of Bendersville. Funeral was on Tuesday with services in the Lutheran church by her pastor, Rev. W. D. E. Scott and interment in Bendersville cemetery.

Inez Janette Koontz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Koontz, died at the home of her parents of Huntingdon township, on Monday, aged four days. She leaves her parents, and one sister, Julia; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Myers, R. 3, Gardners, and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Koontz, R. 3, Gardners. Interment in Mt. Victory cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Brooks, a colored woman who had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Fuller, in York, formerly of Hanover and McSherrystown, died April 29, after an illness of several days. She was aged 110 years. Early in her life Mrs. Brooks was a slave, owned by a family named Zacharias, at Emmitsburg, Md., and recalled many incidents of the Civil war, among others.

walking to Gettysburg after the battle and scenes encountered. Mrs. Brooks was the oldest of a family of eighteen children, of which the youngest, her sister, Mary, is now living. Her home was in Philadelphia. She leaves besides Mrs. Fuller another daughter, Clara Brooks, whose whereabouts are not known. She was the widow of Samuel Brooks, who was killed years ago in a railroad accident.

Jeremiah Bream, one of Adams county's well-known citizens, died on last Friday at his home in Huntingdon township. He was born in that township, lived there his entire life and was in his 84th year. He was a successful farmer, a good neighbor and a man who was held in highest respect. He was an old fashioned Democrat, true to his principles. The funeral was on Monday with services by Rev. Paul Gladfelter and interment at Upper Bermudian Church.

He leaves eight sons and daughters, Mrs. Ezra Guise, of near York Springs; Mary C. Bream, at home; Elmer F. Bream, of near Gardners; J. H. Bream, at home; Amos W. Bream, of Uriah; Edwin Bream, of Gardners; Mrs. Elmer Miller, of Aspers, and Mrs. William Houck, of Carlisle.

Besides her father and mother she is survived by three sisters, and one brother: Mary and Rose, at home; Estelle, of California, and Paul J., at home. Funeral and interment in Philadelphia on Wednesday of last week. The family lived at McKnightstown for a number of years where Mr. Becker conducted a blacksmith shop.

Howard M. Bange, better known as Hotz Bange, and with a personality making him a popular favorite, not only in Hanover but wherever known, met a tragic death at his farm on the pike between Hanover and Abbottstown. He was found head first in a spring with leg extended over the edge and there was a long deep gash on top of his head. It is supposed he stumbled and fell against a stone coping surrounding the spring and force of fall carried him into the spring. He had been at work in the field with his wife and went to the house for some tools and not returning or answering calls of his wife, the latter went in search of him and found the body in the spring. He was born and raised in Littlestown and became one of the best telegraph operators in this section of the country and served for years as train dispatcher on the Hanover and Gettysburg railroad. He served as clerk of the course at Hanover Fair for years. Recently he bought a farm on Abbottstown pike. He was a son of Henry and Rebecca Warren, of Wenzville, and H. H. Warren, of Arndtville; two daughters, Mrs. Fred Mackstead, of Enola, and Mrs. Harvey Beamer, of Wenzville; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Showers, of Wenzville, and Miss Susan Warren, of Gettysburg; and a brother, Lincoln Warren, of Wenzville. ## COMMISSIONERS' STATEMENT

ATTITUDE TOWARD PROPOSED ROAD BOND ISSUE.

Commissioners Indicate Course They Will Follow if the People Want Them to Build Roads.

The Commissioners of Adams county wish by this open letter to make their position on the proposed bond issue authorization clear to the people of the county. When we went before the voters for their support last November we did so on a good road platform. We were then and still are in favor of good roads. We believed then and we know now that many of our good citizens are to be favored with very good roads through their farms and to their towns without a cent of expense to themselves or to the county. We believe that the people of those sections of the county which are not close to those very good roads which don't cost the county a cent are entitled to good roads.

It would, indeed, be an unusual experience to meet a man who is not in favor of good roads; and to meet a man who is in favor of good roads but unwilling to help pay for them is probably no so unusual. We knew when we pledged for good roads that good roads cost money, and if the people of Adams county want the aid which the State offers, the people must show a willingness to authorize the raising of the money.

If the bond issue is authorized on May 18 we don't propose to issue any bonds for the construction of roads (except to match the $61,000 now available from the State) until another appropriation by the State is made available. We do not propose to expend money for the construction of roads of the type required to hold up under traffic such as goes over the Lincoln Highway for we well know that no roads in the proposed plan as presented to us by the Good Roads Association, will be put to the test that our primary roads are put to. There need be no fear or alarm manifested by our good people that we proposed to build $50,000 a mile roads, nor that we will expend the $620,000, designated in the proposition, for the building of a meager twenty-five or thirty miles of roads.

If bonds can't be sold at a reasonable rate of interest and labor and building materials can't be acquired at fair prices we shall postpone action until more favorable conditions present themselves. We recognize the trust the people placed in us when they elected us and we propose to have that trust confirmed.

We have obligations in the form of resolutions regularly and faithfully adopted by our predecessors involving $61,000 for construction of roads and in the form of contracts for bridges involving $28,300; these

MARRIAGE CHANGING NAME

RETURNED FROM WAR TO FIND BRIDE OF HIS DREAMS.

"Wagoner Tom" Whalen Weds Girl Who Bombed with Arbutus.

Whalen-Hawk.—This week Fr. W. Whalen, of Buchanan Valley, united in the holy bonds of wedlock his brother, "Wagoner Tom," of the 76th Field Artillery, and Miss Ruth Hawk, of Shamokin, Pa. Wagoner Tom's letters from the front gave him a wide circle of readers, and won him a host of friends. This romance of the artillery boy and his young bride has been simmering for a long time. They first met the day Tom left Shamokin to join the colors. Miss Hawk was in tears at seeing the boys leave. She tore a bunch of arbutus from her breast and threw the posy with a woman's aim. Tom caught the flowers, kissed them and smiled at her tear-stained face, which lit up with a rainbow smile. He didn't know her name or anything else about her, but when he returned from Coblenz, and was parading in Shamokin, another bunch of flowers, bridal rosebuds this time, struck his tin hat. He saw again the girl he'd dreamed about all during the war. So now she's his. Tom said, "The only thing I didn't like bout this pretty little bird was her name so I changed that," and his priest brother added "he hoped not to her wailing." The young couple will reside at Williamsport.

Edwards-Fischel.—Miss Miriam E. Fischel, of Washington, D. C., formerly of Gettysburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fischel, became the bride of Arthur J. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held which was attended by a number of Adams County friends and relatives.

Cope, civil engineer of the Gettysburg National Park Commission, and Charles Horner Cobean, of Gettysburg, were quietly married at 11:00 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride on Baltimore street, by Rev. Lane-Wolford.—James Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lane, of near Two Taverns, and Miss Emma Wolford, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Wolford, of near Bonneauville, were married April 22, at Littlestown, by Rev. I. M. Lau. They will reside with the bride's mother for the present.

Stratten-Secrist.—Harry T. Stratten, of Buffalo, N. Y., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stratten, of Chambersburg, and Miss Cyril Stock Secrist, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Secrist, of Hanover, were married in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Hanover, Wednesday evening of last week. The officiating clergymen were Rev. Dr. Harry B. Stock, of Carlisle, a cousin of the bride, and Rev. George W. Nicely, pastor of the church. The bride's attendants were Miss Sue Tanger, of Hanover, maid of honor, and Miss Helen Snyder, Philadelphia, and Miss Frances Barnitz, New Oxford, bridesmaids.

The best man was Mark E. Secrist, brother of the bride. A reception was held, and luncheon served at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony. Mrs. Stratton (Continued on page 2)

The Company will make a specialty of manufacturing high grade, moderately priced passenger automobiles for Owner-drivers—those who own and drive their Cars—that great army of American Motorists.

The Hunter Motor Car is to be sold direct to the Owner-driver through the Company's own branch offices, which will be equipped to furnish prompt and efficient service at reasonable prices.

The Company has purchased twenty acres of land, located 27 miles by automobile, from Market Square on the Harrisburg-Gettysburg State Highway. This ground is ideally situated between the Reading and Pennsylvania Railroad where sidings can be connected with both roads. It is within one-half block of the White Hill Car line, about .7 of a mile to the Camp Hill Car line, about .8 of a mile from the Carlisle-Mechanicsburg line and about .5 of a mile to the White Hill Stations on both Reading and Pennsylvania Railroads, both railroads have a nine-minute schedule to the down-town depots in Harrisburg.

This location permits of new buildings of modern arrangement and construction, designed especially for the comfort and welfare of employees, as well as for efficient operation.

The Hunter Motor Car was designed especially for the Owner-driver, and to satisfy his pride of ownership in a car with beautiful lines, finest finish, genuine driving and riding comfort, long life and economical operation.

The building of cars for actual road test, before regular manufacture begins, will be started as soon as the material arrives.

All of the Directors and officers of the Hunter Motor Car Company are just ordinary hard-working American citizens, who got most of their training in the School of "Hard Knocks." They are practical, successful men and have learned from experience that:

—Big things can only be accomplished when backed by public opinion and public patronage.

—Business is built on confidence and the faith that things are right.

To hold this faith and confidence, there must be loyalty, justice, faith and co-operation at the heart of the business.

—Reasonable working hours, honest effort, and just pay with a kindly word and a friendly smile, now and then, never hurt anyone.

—That proper co-operation all the way around creates that indescribable something which is commonly known as Morale—that atmosphere of unity of purpose, courage, kindness and courteous welcome—so genuine that it is instantly felt, accepted and appreciated by everyone who comes in contact with it.

We seek applications now for positions to be filled later, from wide-awake, steady, trustworthy people who have vision, and can work with us rather than just for us. Those who can grow with the opportunity. Co-workers who will help make the "Hunter" name plate mean more than the catalog claims for the car. There will be places for salesmen, office people, advertising writers, mechanics, assemblers, body builders, painters, trimmers and others.

The Million Dollars Capitalization is divided into 100,000 shares of $10.00 par value each.

The land for the factory site, and other property, expense of investigation, cost of designing the car, plans for the organization and operation of the business, which have required thousands of dollars in money, taken many months of work, all worth $110,000.00, have been bought and will be paid for in stock of the Company at par.

Forty thousand dollars ($40,000.00) has been subscribed by the organizers.

The balance of the unsubscribed stock $850,000.00 will be sold to the public at par, and every dollar of money which has been paid into or which will be paid into the treasury of the Company, from the sale of shares, will be used for the development and operation of the business.

Every share holder of record, whether large or small, will receive periodical reports of the condition and progress of the business.

There is only one kind of stock for sale, no preferred shares, no bonds.

James Williams, the shrewdest prisoner ever in Adams county jail in the estimation of Deputy Sheriff J. H. Hartman, was sentenced to be returned to the Huntingdon Reformatory upon his plea of guilty to jail breaking.

Saturday afternoon the desertion and non-support case against John Lauver was heard and after hearing testimony of W. J. Starry, step-son of defendant, Mrs. Starry and Dr. T. C. Miller of Abbottstown, the court sentenced the defendant to pay $60 as reimbursement for doctor bills, clothing and maintenance, as well as $25 weekly toward the support of his wife, C. W. Clean Up Poison Soaked Kidneys Advises Dr. Carey

Thousands Die Every Year Because They Allow Poisonous Deposits to Accumulate in Kidneys.

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts says Dr. Carey, they are too frail and delicate constructed to treat them rough.

For 40 years I have been prescribing Marshroot for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.

If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffs under eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or sideache you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right away. It has conquered thousands of cases of kidney and bladder diseases and is the medicine you can always depend upon.

IMPORTANT—Dr. Daniel G. Carey has been a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription, "Marshroot," has cured thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. It is not a patent medicine and is only sold through drug stores in order to accommodate his patients. People's Drug Store can supply you.
